

Festive Reading Wishlist for Students

As we get closer to the Christmas period, families and friends may be searching for gifts for their children and wish to give something that will engage and inspire them.

We have compiled a list of books aimed at 11-16 year olds as suggestions for friends or relatives across all budgets who might need some inspiration.

There are countless benefits to gifting a child a book, these include;

- ✓ Encouraging reading
- ✓ Helping students further explore an area of interest
- ✓ Ensure they don't spend all of Christmas Day on a device or games console
